Alfred Kohlberg, the New York dealer in Chinese textiles who has been a fighting anti-Communist, particularly in the Far Eastern phase of our diplomacy, has dared Harry Truman to make public loyalty reports affecting "your White House staff." His telegram is a general piece with the admission of Gen. Walter Smith, of the Central Intelligence Agency, that Communists had filtered into all phases of the Truman "security" administration, including Smith's own office. In common with many other protectors of Communists, Truman lately has been pretending to be an old red-baiter. Kohlberg hits him a bust in the teeth with none of the deference which have deprived other attacks on Truman, Roosevelt and La Boca Grande of legitimate force.

Kohlberg's telegram flows into a speech that Senator Joe McCarthy made on the floor of the senate last Jan. 10, in which Joe flatly charged that the FBI had told Truman's White House loyalty board that his confidential man, Philoeb Nash, attended Communist meetings and officially joined the Communist party in 1941 which Nash denied. That charge by McCarthy plainly implied a further charge that Truman, himself, was not merely stupid or indifferent as some of his partisans have argued in excusing his "red-herring" cliché but was actually guilty. He never answered charges but resorts to the smear technique which he and his accomplices have always imputed to McCarthy.

Kohlberg's telegram said: "Times and Herald-Tribune both report you as saying quote the special privilege groups from the

REGISTRATION DEADLINE SAT.

Office Here Still Large Number Still Won't Be Eligible

Tomorrow is the deadline for registering for the coming national elections, Miss Lillian Collins, parish registrar of voters, reminded residents Friday morning. And, although there has been a steady stream of persons registering, she said, there will be a large number who will be ineligible because of not registering.

Miss Collins said Friday morning that she had not been able to compute the number of persons who have registered within the last two weeks because of the "extremely large" number who have come into the office during that time. However, she pointed out that many are registered and believe they have to re-register.

"Anyone who has voted in any of the elections this year are still eligible to vote and should make every effort to do so," Miss Collins said.

During the state and municipal elections earlier this year records numbers cast their ballots. "But this is still far below the number who are qualified to register, but have not taken the trouble to do so," she said.

Squirrel Season May Or May Not Be Open Today

BATON ROUGE (U)—The squirrel hunting season opened in Louisiana today—or did it?

The attorney general's office says it didn't. The attorney general's office yesterday gave the opinion that the season won't open until Oct. 20.

The Wildlife and Fisheries Department had said earlier that the season would open today.

Worried by the recent outbreak of forest fires in rural areas parched by the summer-long drought, the Louisiana Forestry Commission urged postponement of the season.

Gov. Robert Kennon, through his executive council, suggested a delay would be wise.

The attorney general's office concurred. Not so with the Commissioner of Wildlife, Ernest Clements.

Clements maintained that it was his authority to designate the opening of the season.

Clements said too many people were depending on today's opening of the season as vacations have been planned as well as hunting trips.

TRUMAN PRAISES SENATOR MORSE

Declares Another GOP Solon Disavows Present Leadership

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (U)—President Truman voiced praise today for Republican Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon for refusing to work for Dwight D. Eisenhower after the general "surrendered to Sen. Taft."

And he declared another Republican senator, William E. Langer of North Dakota, had informed him this week "He doesn't owe the Republican party anything."

The President told a trainside crowd at Klamath Falls, Ore., that Morse can "see through the five-star glitter to the sad fact underneath, that the Republican candidate is the captive of the old guard."

Moving through Oregon en route to whistle stops in California and an inspection of Shasta Dam near Redding, Truman declared: "Republican conservatism used to be strong," but "now it is being driven to the wall by the old guard."

Morse, praised by the President as "one of the finest men and best liberals I have ever known," worked, Truman said, for the nomination of Eisenhower, "thinking he was a liberal."

"Just a few weeks after the Republican Convention the candidate surrendered to Senator Taft—and gave in to the old guard on every issue—from public power to national defense," the President continued in his typical "give 'em hell" form.

"He didn't stand up for a single liberal principle when the going got tough."

"So Senator Morse has refused to work for him—and I respect Senator Morse for that. Wayne Morse can see through the five-star glitter to the sad fact underneath, that the Republican candidate is the captive of the old guard."

Of Langer, who rode with the President through North Dakota, but said he had not yet taken a stand on the presidential race, Truman said:

"I haven't always agreed with him, but I know he has always been on the side of the people. He told me he doesn't owe the Republican party anything—they have tried to beat him three times."

Up until this summer, the President went on, Morse "had hoped the Republican party could be reformed."

Truman said the dams and transmission lines in the Northwest were built because the Democratic party, not being "controlled by the power companies," can "look beyond the narrow horizons of private profit, and build great projects like those that no private company has the vision or the resources to undertake."

The President entered Oregon to press his fight on Eisenhower after calling him a captive of the "Republican isolationists" whose election might endanger the country.

In his Klamath Falls appearance Truman said a bill has been introduced in Congress, by a Republican, to study all federal projects to find out how many could be turned over to local governments or private firms.

Nominees And Supporters Search Nation Coast-To-Coast For Votes

For possibly the first time in the 1952 presidential campaign all major candidates and their top supporters campaigned simultaneously today: Stevenson, Eisenhower, Taft, Kefauver and McCarthy in the Midwest, Nixon and Sparkman in the Border states of the South and President Truman in the Far West.

REVOLT LEADER KILLED IN N. Y.

Lured Into Murky Tenement Hallway By Assassin

NEW YORK (U)—A leader of the Dominican Republic's revolutionary movement was lured to death by assassination last night in a murky tenement hallway.

Andres Bessuna, 44-year-old co-publisher of an infrequently published Spanish language newspaper, was shot to death after a mysterious telephone call summoned him to a tenement house at 243 Madison Street.

Requena's newspaper, "De Patria," is editorially opposed to the government of President Hector Trujillo of the Dominican Republic.

It is published here and sneaked into the Latin American country. A cab driver, Of Tassitky told police he drove Requena to the address and agreed to wait five minutes for him.

Suddenly five shots rang out. Tassitky called police. They found the publisher's body huddled in the hallway with four slugs in it. A .38 caliber gun was found in the rear of the building.

3 Ships, 24 Fishermen Missing In Jap Sea

TOKYO (U)—Three ships with 24 fishermen were missing after tidal waves and high winds buffeted the shores of Hokkaido Island today.

Nine of the fishermen were feared drowned when their ships overturned. Fifteen others are believed adrift on the Pacific.

Eighty houses and 23 fishing vessels were damaged.

The tidal waves were about 12 feet high.

The winds and waves were a result of a typhoon that passed between Honshu and Hokkaido Islands.

By The Associated Press

Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential candidate, invaded Sen. Robert A. Taft's home state of Ohio for the first time, armed with a prepared address attacking what he called the new Republican isolationism which he said could lead to "national tragedy."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, his GOP opponent, moved through Wisconsin, sharing the spotlight at least for a day with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, controversial Wisconsin Republican. The general was expected to continue using his shot-gun technique—criticizing Democrats for everything from Korea to corruption.

President Truman, whistle-stopping through Oregon and California, hammered away at Eisenhower, calling him a captive of the "Republican isolationists" whose election might endanger the country.

Taft was saying about the same thing—but about Stevenson. "Mr. Republican" said Stevenson's election would endanger the country because he would permit what Taft termed the "greatest threat" to this nation to continue—a threat he said was created by "stupidity and pro-Communist sympathies in the State Department."

Sen. Richard Nixon, the GOP vice presidential nominee, shifted his campaign from Virginia into Maryland and Delaware, saying things look bright for a Republican.

JAPANESE ELECTION GIVES REDS FIRST REAL SETBACK IN ASIA

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese voters in their first free election since regaining sovereignty handed world communism its worst Asian setback of the postwar era.

Japan's Communist party, which won 35 House seats in the 1949 election, failed to place a single one of its 107 candidates in Wednesday's balloting.

Only two Communists remain in the Japanese Parliament. Both are in the virtually powerless Senate.

Voters gave pro-American Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida and his Liberal party an absolutely majority of 240 seats in 468-member House.

Japanese commentators predicted that Japan would follow an even stronger policy of cooperation with the West, particularly with the U. S.

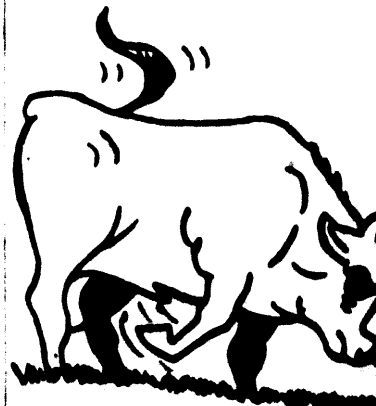

The severe drubbing which the Japanese gave the Communists at the polls amazed observers.

It was a smashing cold war victory for the democratic West.

The Red defeat reflected Japanese revulsion for the Red campaign of violence and hate which reached a high point in May Day riots. It mirrored, too, Japanese irritation with Soviet Russia's reluctance to hand back or even discuss the thousands of Japanese war prisoners missing behind the Iron Curtain.

It showed the depth of Japan's suspicion of the Communists who seized islands within sight of Japan after the war. The Japanese have become increasingly angry at Soviet capture of Japan's fishing boats and crews off the northern island, Hokkaido.

The Soviet Union's 1949 agreement with Red China on a mutual defense pact aimed directly at Japan was a blow to hopes that this nation might be able to get on a friendly footing with the Communists. The Red refused last year

LITTLE BUSINESSMAN

Glenn Edward Johnston, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnston, 2913 Lee avenue, won second place as an outstanding carrier salesman. He is a typical example of a little businessman with a big future. He belongs to that large group of more than a half a million "Little Merchants. The Newspaper Boy of America."

GLENN JOHNSTON IS OUTSTANDING

Wins Second Place In 'Carrier Boy Of Year' Contest

Over the wide expanse of these United States there is a great army of teen age boys, more than a half million strong, who are little business men of today. From their ranks may well come the leaders of tomorrow.

The first newspaper boy was Ben Franklin, whom history records as an inventor, statesman, philosopher and one of the first signers of the Declaration of Independence. Ben recalled that as a boy he was apprenticed to his brother on the second newspaper ever founded in America. He says in his memoirs "and I was also called upon to go into the streets and deliver the news to readers."

Runner-up for the honor of Carrier Boy of the Year in the Twin Cities, Glenn Edward Johnston, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnston, 2913 Lee Avenue, is an outstanding example of a little businessman with a big future.

Glenn, who's father is dock foreman for Couch Motor Freight Lines won his coveted second place with only a narrow margin between he and his place on the basis of only five months experience and service. His appearance and manner could win him the title of All American Boy or as he might prefer the Ideal Carrier-salesman. He is a good student of the sophomore class at Ouachita Parish High School and likes baseball, football and all kinds of sports. Although college is still three years in the future, Glenn is looking forward and saving toward the day when he can embark upon the study of architecture.

While he helps to keep the wheel of our daily lives turning, this young merchant appreciates the opportunity of his business training. He says "I like keeping my own books and I like meeting the public in sincere candor, he further stated "Well, you know I have some awfully nice people on my route."

Glenn is "paperboy" to nearly two hundred people living in the vicinity of South Grand, Pargoud Drive, Peach and Jackson Street. He is the only child of his parents.

SCHOOL STAMP ALBUMS READY

Postmaster Hathorn Says Supply Is Now Available At Post Office

The Monroe post office now has a plentiful supply of school saving stamps and albums ready for the new school season. Postmaster Hathorn announced today. "We have received shipments of both stamps and albums during the summer months and are fully prepared to continue serving all of our schools," he said.

Postmaster Hathorn also stated, "There is every reason to anticipate a far heavier demand for savings stamps this year than at any time during the peacetime years. The school savings campaign last fall, which proved such an outstanding success, created keen interest in the program on the part of teachers and students. The drive which added 5,815 new school savings programs throughout the country, will be continued during the first semester of this school year. It is expected that nearly five million students will be in stamp day schools by the end of this calendar year."

"It is hard to visualize the great benefit this one program will have for our country with five million children saving nickels and dimes and building the habit of thrift. School savings have been on the uptrend the past three years," he continued. "Stamp sales in the nation's schools increased from $10 million 800 thousand in 1950 to $14 million in the 1951-52 school year." Postmaster Hathorn also announced that the new improved Series E Bonds are now available. In describing the new bond, he said, "It is now better than ever. Your return on this bond is three per cent compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. It also provides higher cash values in the earlier years. Proof of its popularity is evidenced by the fact that the cash value of E bonds now outstanding has mounted to $30 billion, the highest ever attained."

L. U. FOURMY IS CLUB SPEAKER

Local Insurance Agent Tells Of Requirements Of New State Law

L. U. Fourmy, well known in local insurance circles, introduced by O. W. Wolf, discussed at the Thursday night Civitan meeting at La Casa, the new state-wide insurance law that went into effect Oct. 1.

He explained that many states have compulsory insurance laws but that the law as adopted for Louisiana is passed for the protection of all concerned. The purpose is to eliminate reckless, irresponsible drivers and requires every owner or operator of a motor vehicle to show proof of his ability to pay for any damages that may result. Failure will deprive of the right to use a motor vehicle in the state.

To comply with the law, one must report every accident involving injury or death to a person or resulting in damage to property in excess of $100 within 10 days by written report to the Department of Public Safety of the state of Louisiana.

One can prove financial responsibility in one of three ways: Through insurance — The filing with the Department of Public Safety a certificate of insurance in the proper amounts, which was in force at the time of the accident. The second way of showing responsibility in a financial sense can be through a surety bond. This is to be filed with the Department of Public Safety with at least two individual sureties each owning real estate in Louisiana.

The third way of showing financial ability to settle an accident claim is cash. This is to be done by filing a receipt showing deposit of money or securities not to exceed $11,000 with the state treasurer.

A number of questions were asked by members of the Civitan Club and answered by Mr. Fourmy and the program proved highly instructive and timely.

NEW OPS SETS PRICES ON FOOD

Ceiling Figures Fixed By Aid Of Governmental Group

Community food pricing was begun throughout Louisiana this week, Chester A. Urey, director of the New Orleans OPS, states. The new OPS procedure requires the placement of official posters listing the dollars-and-cents ceiling prices of between three and four hundred food items in conspicuous positions in every retail grocery. Because OPS has now assumed the calculation of these ceiling prices grocers are relieved of what has been an onerous burden, according to A. F. Roempe, district OPS price executive.

Representatives of the OPS are making checks this week to determine what grocers have not displayed the posters. Names of non-complying grocers will be turned over to the agency's enforcement branch for possible court action. Posters have been prepared by OPS to provide every grocery with enough copies to be posted in accordance with the terms of the regulation which calls for display of a poster for a given number of square feet of floor space. They are mailed to all grocers in the state. New posters will be printed monthly and, when required, amendments will be made if a pricing situation requires a change in the listing. Several trade meetings have already been held at some of the major communities of both north and south Louisiana. Grocers who have not yet had an opportunity to obtain information concerning the method of operation should watch for announcements of future clinics or trade meetings at which they may be brought up-to-date concerning the project. In the event they are unable to attend in an announced clinic they may write to the New Orleans OPS office at 1441 Canal Street, New Orleans, for complete information.

Dr. Harold B. Gotsas, professor of sanitary engineering, reports there are still some 6,000 American communities without a public water supply and over 9,000 without a sewage system.

"And there is scarcely a city in the United States today in which atmospheric pollution conditions are not worse than they were a century ago," said Dr. Gotsas. Increased sanitary problems are the result of urban and suburban growth, industrialization, increased travel and changing living conditions, he said.

Negro Youth's Death Believed Suicide

Dennis Freeman, Jr., 31, Negro, Calypso, charged with the murder of Charles B. Fisher, 23, Negro, Calypso, who died Sunday, was released yesterday after it was definitely established that Fisher committed suicide, Detective Captain H. L. Tolbert said.

Fisher was released after a ballistics test revealed that Fisher had carried out his threat to kill himself, Tolbert said. No motive has been found for his suicide.

Mary Godfrey, 23, Negro, Calypso, Fisher's common-law wife, who was being held as a material witness, has also been released from custody.

date in 1951. The figures for Texas parish from the 1952 crop is 1,961 against 1,381 to the same date last year and for Louisiana parish, 1,013 bales for 1952 as against a total of 1,164 for the same time last year.

Forest Festival Queen Is Named In Winnfield

WINNFIELD, Oct. 1 (Special).—Miss Betty Lou Sebolt of Shreveport tonight was named queen of the 1952 Louisiana Forest Festival, winning out over a field of 31 beautiful entrants in the fourth annual statewide contest. She was crowned by state forester James E. Mixon and Miss Jo Ann Prestridge, the 1951 queen, to reign over the four-day event which ends Saturday.

The new queen, whose selection was anticipated from the start and loudly acclaimed by a jam-packed audience of the festival visitors from all over the state, was sponsored in the contest by the Holiday in Dixie and the city of Shreveport.

Runners-up were Miss Jo Ann Weaver of Natchitoches, entered by the New Drug Company of that city, second, and Miss Melba Gaudier of Alexandria, sponsored by Schwartzberg's there, third. Miss Sebolt is the fourth queen to reign over the state forest festival in its five-year history. She was preceded in 1948 by Mrs. Clyde Smith, Jr., of Winnfield; in 1950 by Miss Jenna Fae Whitley of Winnfield and in 1951 by Miss Prestridge of Natchitoches. No contest was held in 1949, first year of the festival.

Master of ceremonies for the 1952 event was James Kitchens, executive secretary of the Louisiana Forestry Association. Judges were John Squires of the Mississippi Products Company, Jackson; Frank Bennett, a consulting forester of Baton Rouge and Miss Marjorie Arbor, editor of the Agricultural Extension Service, Louisiana State University.

Queens of six other events were presented at the contest as special guests of the Forest Festival Association. They included Miss Patty Pope, Miss Holiday in Dixie; Miss Dorothy Goff, Louisiana Peach Festival; Miss Lorraine Lott, International Rice Festival; Miss Jeanne Smith, Louisiana Poultry Festival; Miss Marilyn Bonnette, Dogwood Trail; Miss Prestridge, 1951 Forest Festival and Miss Jenna Fae Whitley, 1950 Forest Festival and National Queen of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of 1952.

The 1952 contest was sponsored by the women's auxiliary to the Payne-Johnson Post No. 3800, veterans of Foreign Wars under the direction of Mrs. Melonea Allen, president.

For awards the 1952 queen was presented $100 by the Louisiana Forest Festival Association and a silver tray by the V. F. W. Auxiliary.

Mrs. Stahl Sees Trend Toward Controlled Press

Annie Lee West (Lady) Stahl, head of the journalism department at Northeast Louisiana State College, said yesterday that for the past several years there has "definitely been a trend toward a controlled press."

Mrs. Stahl interpreted freedom of the press as reaching further than freedom to print the news. She said freedom of the press also assured the right to gather news as well.

Addressing the West Monroe Kiwanis club in a regular noon luncheon, Mrs. Stahl rapped out at "undue influence or intimidation" against the press of the nation.

She pointed out that it was through a free press that the thinking public must be intelligently and truthfully informed in order that it may objectively decide the issues at stake.

"An awareness that the public is not getting all the information it should on public matters is spreading within the ranks of the nation's press," she said.

"Alarmed at the growing trend toward shutting off of information at all governmental levels, the press has done some investigating into suppression with surprising results," the journalism department head said.

Mrs. Stahl said the citizen is entitled to view government functions "as if they were conducted in a goldfish bowl." She added that it is the duty of the newspapers to "poke their noses into the bowl" as that of the private individual.

She said it is surprising that most of our states have now laws guaranteeing the rights of the press to examine records of public bodies.

Mrs. Stahl said that in the event the United States should succumb to an oppressive outside aggressor, the freedom of the press would be the first of the American freedoms to be abolished.

The journalism professor closed her address by quoting Thomas Jefferson: "Were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter."

Also appearing on the Kiwanis program was Billy Miller, who has been named the "outstanding news carrier boy" of the year. Billy is a News-Star-World carrier.

The Kiwanis program this week was designed to hear out a news paper theme, this being "national newspaper week."

Miss. Group Still

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The Christian Nationalist Party was reported today planning to file a full slate of presidential electors pledged to Gen. Douglas MacArthur on the state ballot.

A party representative attempted yesterday to file a petition by 50 qualified electors to put two presidential electors on the ballot. Secretary of State Heber Ladner said he would take only a complete slate of eight electors because Attorney General J. P. Coleman had ruled that the electors could not qualify individually.

Ladner quoted the party representative as saying a full slate would be submitted in several days.

James Joyner Among Star Carrier-Salesmen Of 1952

James Lamar Joyner, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith of Tallulah, deserves to take his place among the star carrier boys of the year 1952, not only because he is an outstanding and successful carrier - salesman for the Monroe Morning World and News-Star but also because he is that, in spite of the crippling menace of polio.

Jimmy was afflicted with polio at the age of eight and was paralyzed and unable to walk for the entire year that he spent in the polio center in New Orleans. He underwent the Kenny treatments and doctors marveled at his stamina in the face of the dreaded disease, saying "they had never seen a child with so much courage and determination to get well."

Today Jimmy walks with only a slight limp, plays ball and participates in other school activities at Tallulah High School, where he is a sophomore student. He is a big fan of the new Tallulah play ground where one will find him on the baseball diamond, playing an expert game of ping-pong or engaging in a vigorous game of tennis or croquet.

He readily admits that the fresh air, sunshine and healthy exercise of pumping his bike over the streets of Tallulah have helped him greatly in overcoming his handicap. A bright, alert youngster to whom success is not a new experience, Jimmy has been a member of the student council for the past three years and plays cornet in the high school band. He is saving the profits from his route to go to college and says he plans to be a good salesman or a lawyer.

Salesmanship is one milestone in his life which Jimmy has already shown that he can excel in. He was top man this past summer in a sales promotion campaign and unselfishly named his prizes so that his mother might enjoy them with him. He won a golden hour clock, General Electric waffle iron and a canasta set.

Dewey Critical Of Demo VP Nominee

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey says the presence of Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama on the Democratic ticket makes it "Jim Crow."

Dewey declares the vice presidential candidate—now campaigning in New York State—is "a leader of the Jim Crow bloc in the Senate."

The Democratic party, Dewey adds, made a "fatal blunder" in sending Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's running mate into New York State.

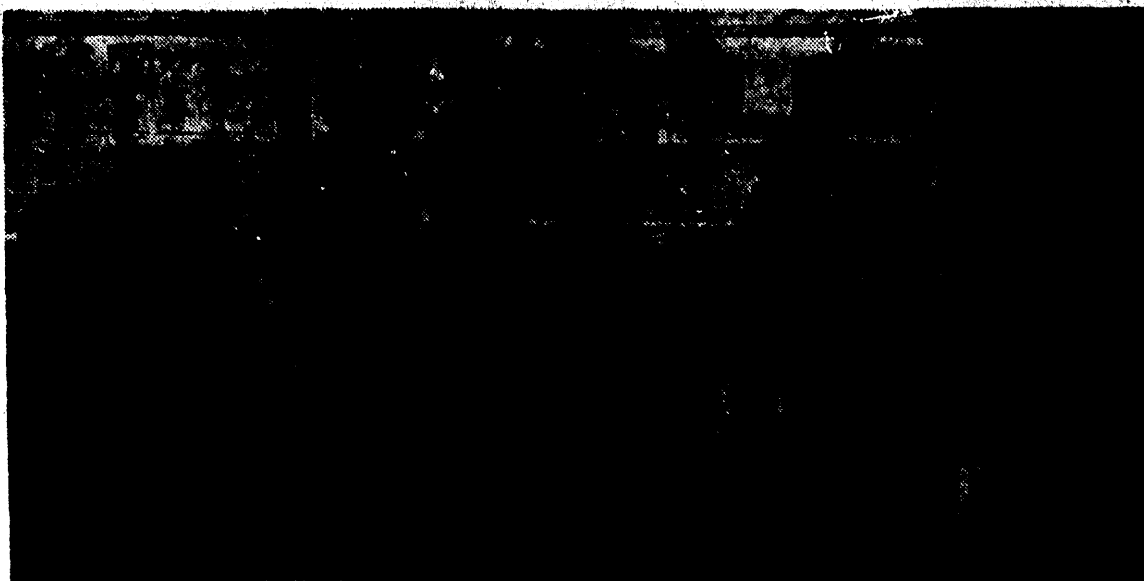

Dewey made the statements last night in a prepared text for a 15-minute simultaneous radio and television program.

The governor said he had found Sparkman voted 23 times "against the rights of Americans to be Americans."

WORKMEN HERE HOPE THAT PORCUPINES, who have been eating cement here, run into some concrete stomach trouble.

A form of a crew erecting a shelter cabin in Glacier National Park said the animals have a taste for cement bags as well as almost anything else in sight. One of the workers left a suitcase outside his lodging for a night. The next morning he found that porcupines had eaten all the leather and the bottom out of the bag.

BACK AT PALACE

Dick Foster, formerly connected with The Palace, has returned to Monroe to resume his duties as salesman in the shoe department of The Palace. Many will remember him as the ballplayer who signed up with the New York Yankees, playing this year with McAlister, Oklahoma "Rockets", a farm team of the Yankees. Foster is happy to return to Monroe and states that he will be in the shoe department all this winter, and that he will be glad to show his many friends the complete new fall line of shoes that have been arriving daily, famous brands that are nationally advertised. After his very successful season with the "Rockets," The Palace is happy to welcome Foster back, until his return to the Yankees spring training for the re-opening of the baseball season.

PUBLIC FORUM

(All communications intended for use in the Public Forum must be signed. Names of the writers will be omitted from publication if requested, but communications must bear the signature of the writers.)

Dear Editor:
I'm getting sick and tired of this moanin' and groanin' to the general theme of "I don't like the candidates, I don't like the platform. I'm afraid we're going to get some more of the same, but I can't vote Republican!"

And why not, brother?
"My grandpappy and his pappy before him always voted Democrat and he would turn over in his grave if he knew that a grandson of his would vote Republican ticket!"

Well, listen, brother, if your grandpappy thought that a grandson of his would let that gang of liberal socialist (liberal with your money and social with the Boodle Boys) stuff — FEPC, and the Tidelands grab down his throat — he's not only turn over; he'd rise up on his hind legs and come back and han't you.

FEPC and some of the other social brain storms may have some good points, but they are a matter of logical education, not propaganda, and like prohibition, and the law of supply and demand can't be changed over night by passing a law.

As for the tidelands, I noticed that HST remarked a couple of weeks ago that only a few of us owned all wells and the rest of us would vote Democratic.

He may be right, he sometimes is!

There are only a few lousy rich oil millionaires who gambled their money, not yours, dear taxpayers, to prove that the tidelands were good for something more than shrimp pastures.

After it was proven valuable and a source of income to themselves, the state, and an addition to the resources of the nation, then, and only then, did someone in Washington wake up to the fact that the taking over and administration of same, would furnish a lot more plush covered seats for the boys on the Washington gravy train.

It would also establish a precedent to grab off the Mesabi iron ore under Lake Superior or the catfishing rights on the Mississippi River because it flows between federal built levees.

Although a lot of us don't own oil wells, the oily millionaires hired a few rough necks to run the drilling rigs, and a few more to string pipe lines, and a few to run the refineries, and a few railroads and trucks for transportation, and by the time the man at the corner filling station fills the tank of your old jalopy — there seems to be quite a few of us interested in oil.

Of course, as good ol' Harry says — a lot of us including some of our representatives in Congress, will step in and stamp the rooster, even if Beesleebub, Ananias and Judas Iscariot have the top spot in the batting order. It's an old southern custom and getting to be had habit.

Why a rooster anyway? I never cared much for that bird except hegged down in dumplings. Of all the beasts that roam the barnyard a rooster is the world's brainless wonder, as anyone knows that ever tried to head one through a twelve foot gate.

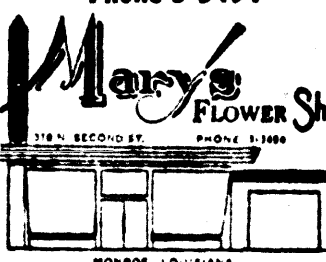

If we must have an animal to head the ballot that will assure us of some more meat in Washington, and in view of the stench that arises when the meat is stirred up, I would suggest one that will be recognized by everyone except the city slicker, a small furry animal with a bushy tail and a white stripe down his back and the grand and glorious and malodorous machine.

A rose by any other name would smell sweet, and much more appropriate than mink. . . don't you think.

oil lobby to the China lobby have all joined together behind the Republican party unquote. When you refer to the China lobby that's my baby. I'm supposed to be it. Under oath before the senate MacArthur committee the Russell committee, which heard General MacArthur's testimony.—Ed. last year Acheson swore he instructed other executive agencies to investigate the China lobby. I am not registered as a lobbyist or as foreign agent. It is therefore apparent that investigation by executive department either proved there was no China lobby and your speech writers involved you in false charges making you guilty of what you call McCarthyism or else executive departments made evidence making me guilty of failing to register legally y4 have failed to act."

In fewer words, he calls Truman a liar because Truman of course was not a victim of any "speech writer" but has been trying to delouse himself of his own guilt by conjuring a nonexistent force called the China lobby.

Continuing, Kohlberg wrote: "Suggest you either apologize to me or fire your attorney general for neglect of duty. Why did you take FBI reports on your own White House staff away from your loyalty review board. Are you willing to make these reports public now and let your fellow countrymen judge for themselves. Please Mr. President, no more critic letter in reply just do something."

McCarthy's speech was a positive charge that Nash, the carefully chosen successor to the late David K. Bles, himself a suspicious figure for years under Harry Hopkins, F. D. Roosevelt and Truman and active associate of Felix Frankfurter, was a Communist plant in the White House.

In his speech McCarthy did not disclose to source of his documents but he said "I intend to read into the record proceedings before the loyalty board of the ### Support Your Child Study Aspirin in To Middle of the Night?

How quickly have St. John's Aspirin Tablets been used by millions of parents to soothe their children's pain? Your child will sleep peacefully—no more crying or fussing—no more waking up in the night. St. John's Aspirin Tablets are the only child aspirin that is safe and effective.

White House and the loyalty review board."

There is on the president's staff at a salary of $17,500 a year, Phillip Nash, listed as adviser to the president," McCarthy continued. "The White House loyalty board cleared Nash some time ago. Thereafter the FBI conducted a complete and thorough investigation. Ten separate reports were made by the FBI. All those reports were sent to the White House loyalty board and to the loyalty review board."

"The White House loyalty board cleared Nash. Subsequently the loyalty review board picked up the case and the complete files were sent to the White House. They never have been returned to the loyalty review board."

McCarthy then said the FBI developed the following "principal points":

That Nash, the president's adviser, had been in close contact with the Communist underground in Washington.

That Nash had been a close friend and close associate of one of the convicted Canadian Communists.

That Nash had financially contributed to the support of the Canadian Tribune, the official organ of the Communist party in Canada.

That during the early forties, parts of the Communist spy ring in Canada were using Nash's home in Toronto as a rendezvous and some of them were living there.

That Nash, in the early forties, was attending Communist meetings and had officially joined the Communist party.

"That, in essence," McCarthy said, "is the picture of the president's adviser, one of his administrative assistants, who is receiving $17,500 a year."

The top military officials, he said, are unable to function adequately because they are both partisans and judges in inter-service rivalries.

Seventh Inning Yankees: Rizzuto raised a high fly to Pafko inside the left field line.

Collins bounced out Meekly to Hodges.

Reese gobbled up Mantle's hot grounder and threw him out in a fast play.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Eighth Inning Dodgers: The official paid attendance was announced as 65,000.

Robinson dropped a Texas League single at Mantle's feet.

Robinson ran halfway to second and then back to first to beat Mantle's throw to Collins.

Campanella slashed a ground single past McDougald into left field, Robinson steaming into third base as Woodling's throw to the infield was cut off by Rizzuto who almost nipped Campanella as he rounded first base.

Pafko lined deep to Woodling, Robinson easily scoring after the catch. Campanella raced to second on Woodling's throw to the plate.

Snider raised a sky-high foul behind the plate but Berra dropped the ball for an error. Snider popped to Rizzuto on the edge of the outfield grass.

Hodges was given an intentional base on balls.

Cox also walked, on four pitches, to clog the bases.

Roe went out on a slow bounder to Martin.

One run, two hits, one error, three left.

Eighth Inning Yankees: Woodling struck out, missing a high inside pitch, but had to be tagged out by Campanella who dropped the ball. Woodling protested bitterly to Umpire Goetz that he had checked his swing and stalked back to the dugout moping to himself.

Berra hammered a home run into the lower right field stands, about 10 feet inside the foul line, for his first homer of the series to cut Brooklyn's margin to 3-2.

Bauer came within a couple of feet of tying the score when his long drive into the left field stands curved foul. His throw rapped a hard grounder to Cox who whipped him out.

McDougald flied to Snider in dead center.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Ninth Inning Dodgers: Furillo bounced out, Rizzuto to Collins.

Reese banged a ground single past first base into right field for his third hit.

Robinson smacked a low line single into center, Reese holding up to the mound to confer with his pitcher. It was the 10th hit off Lopat, that was all for the southpaw who was replaced by Tom Gorman, bespectacled rightlander.

Reese and Robinson worked a double steal, Reese sliding into third safely ahead of Berra's throw to McDougald.

Campanella raised a high pop to Rizzuto at the edge of the infield grass.

Gorman unleashed a wild pitch that bounced back to the screen and Reese and Robinson both scored as Berra had no idea where the ball went. Berra stood at home plate making no attempt to go after the ball until Reese had already crossed the plate and Robinson was halfway between third and home. The catcher finally retrieved the ball after both runners had scored. The official scorer announced a correction ruling a passed ball charged against Berra. The pitch was a low inside fast ball that caromed off Berra's shinguard, and bounded to the edge of the screen to the left of the plate.

Pafko looped a single to right-center.

Snider fouled to Berra.

Two runs, three hits, no errors, one left.

Ninth Inning Yankees: Martin popped to Campanella in the first baseline.

Johnny Mize, a lefthanded batter went in to bat for Gorman.

Mize belted a home run into the lower right field stands. It was his first world series home run.

Roe ran up and 3-1 count on Rizzuto causing Dresen to come out of the Dodger dugout for a brief mound conference.

Rizzuto hit a 3-2 pitch and raised a high pop to Snider behind second base.

Johnny Sain, a righthanded hitter, batter for Collins. Sain sent a high fly to Snider in shallow center.

If a newspaper advertisement describes merchandise of a certain quality, you the reader, may be sure it is of that quality or the advertiser will bear from the paper. Newspapers... as was not always true... the ethics of newspaper advertising are held at extremely high standards. No ranking newspaper will knowingly accept or print untrue or unreliable advertising. Many newspapers have a printed code to which advertisers must conform. Advertisements are the lifeblood of your newspaper. In reality ads are news. Ask any housewife who watches the newest styles. To a home-maker, advertisements tell a story as vital and interesting as the latest information from world trouble-spots is to her husband. To the lady, the ad's message is an important news story. It tells her something she needs to know and could learn no other way. It is just as necessary as any news item, just as accurate and therefore as reliable. But only because your newspaper insists that it be so.

Whoever the Editorial Writer is, it's certain he's a local personage of no mean influence. Reformers, community planners, church and civic leaders value his integrity. Chastising politicians, quasi-criminal elements, and selfish individuals hate him, may even threaten him. But the local newspaper editor stays just the way he is, impartially telling the everyday story of the world's news, interpreting events and trends in a way understood by all. His editorials pointing out transgressions and calling for punishment, or congratulating a civic achievement, give his paper personality. Because they express opinions and attitudes of a newspaper, editorials are never written casually. Hours of analysis are spent breaking down large amounts of news dispatches, "off-the-record" background material and statistics to their essential meanings. Once analyzed, arranged in an order suggesting trends in the world's activities, they are written up in a manner easily understood by the reader.

EX-PRESIDENTS DAY OBSERVED

Kiwanis Pays Honor To Men Who Have Held High Office In Group

The Monroe Kiwanis Club celebrated "Past-president's" day at the Wednesday meeting in the Virginia Hotel. Past-president Fred Fudickar read the names of all the men who have been president of the Monroe Kiwanis Club since its inception. A moment of silence was observed by the entire club in memory of all the Kiwanians who have been president of the club and are now deceased.
Past-president Buddy Madison conducted the program, introducing the three senior past-presidents of the Monroe Kiwanis Club. The first on the program was Kiwanian John Beard, one of the charter members of the club. Kiwanian Beard stated that in 1924 the Monroe Kiwanis Club was largely instrumental in getting the Parish Court House erected. He explained the bond issue that was passed so that the building could be built. The next speaker, Kiwanian Albert Marx, told the club that the Monroe Kiwanis Club was started with 50 charter members in September 1921. In 1938 the club received a charter from the state making it a corporation. Years ago the president and board members were elected at random, but today they are elected in a more definite pattern, the vice-presidents eventually becoming presidents. Another change is the law that a board member cannot be elected for more than two years in succession.
The third speaker on the program was Kiwanian F. K. Hirsch. Kiwanian Hirsch told the club that the Monroe Kiwanis Club sponsored Kiwanis Clubs in Rayville, W. Monroe, Ruston, and Bastrop. When West Monroe decided it needed a civic club, it was decided that Kiwanis offered the prospective members more than any other, so Kiwanis was established in West Monroe. Kiwanian Hirsch, who besides being president of the club, was district governor of the Louisiana-Mississippi-West Tennessee district, told the meeting that in 1934, during the depression, many didn't pay their dues but were kept on the rolls because of their excellent work in Kiwanis. He told the club that Kiwanis had the distinction of not losing one club during the depression. Kiwanian Hirsch told the members and guests that his association with Kiwanis has been the finest in his career and that he along with the other past-presidents still are interested in the work of Kiwanis. The club enjoyed hearing the remarks of its past-presidents, all of whom are continuing to work hard for Kiwanis and what it stands for.

Can Size Up Man By The Hat He Wears

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Want to size up the men in your life?

You can judge their character by their hats, says James B. Lee, men's hat manufacturer of Danbury, Conn.

This can be a great help to the girl who is out shopping for a husband. A young man may put on his best manners for his best girl, but his taste in hats will give the key to his true personality.

There's the Joe College type, who still wears a pork pie hat, collegiate clothes and always wears his fraternity pin. He's an eternal sophomore, and isn't mature enough to be a good husband.

The lad who wears a green plush Tyrolean hat with a whisk-broom in the band for business occasions is a non-conformist, and probably difficult to live with.

The swain who goes in for wide-brimmed Western-type hats in light colors is something of an exhibitionist, but easy-going and open-handed. He's good husband material, if you don't want to exhibit him in a fashion show. Probably will be good to the children and go in for outdoor sports.

The type who wears sport shirts wired for sound and straw hats with blinding bands probably holds himself in all year just so he can get rid of his inhibitions in the good old summer time. He's the mercurial type, who may be in the dumps one day and bubbling over with good cheer the next. Life with him at least would not be dull.

If he wears a derby, he's a rarity these days, and may be worth keeping. He's a boy who reverts to tradition and never ventures very far off the beaten path.

The man who wears a homburg is sure of himself, knows his way around, and is fussy about his clothes. But he'll be a good provider, make the decisions for the family and probably keep you on a pedestal. If you enjoy pedestals, grab him.

Lee feels that the most promising husband material is the young man who wears a conservative felt hat with narrow brim and tapered crown, teams it with a well-tailored business suit and a restrained tie. If one of these is on your list, rope him in with all speed.

But if he doesn't wear a hat at all, says this hat maker, who could be prejudiced on the point, send him home to mother. He'll never succeed in the world of business, because he doesn't care enough about appearances.

Urges Review Of Mystery Programs

NEW YORK (U.P.)—A television industry group urges a review of mystery programs and says the carnival "pictman" type of commercial "belongs on the midway, not on television."

The group, the National Television Code Board of Review, met yesterday to study operations under the voluntary code—subscribed to by 94 TV stations. The board was set up last spring by the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters.

After the closed meeting John E. Fetzer, board chairman and president and owner of WKZO-TV at Kalamazoo, Mich., issued a statement saying:

"The board recognizes that there have been excesses in scheduling programs containing drinking and killing scenes at hours when children may view them. We are asking code subscribers to pay special heed to such programs at hours when children normally would not be in the audience."

RETURNS NEGRO FROM CALIF. FERRIDAY, Oct. 3 (Special)—Deputy Sheriff W. M. Seaman of Tensas parish has returned to St. Joseph from Los Angeles, Calif., where he was sent by Tensas parish sheriff, Elliott D. Coleman, to return a Negro, Charles Payne, wanted in the parish on a charge of murder. The prisoner is accused of killing his wife on Mount plantation, west of St. Joseph twenty-one years ago. He made his escape from the parish and was not apprehended until recently. The deputy made the trip to Los Angeles by both car and by plane.

Taft Hits Out At Stevenson

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, O. (U.P.)—Sen. Robert A. Taft said last night Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson, if elected president, would permit the greatest threat to this nation to continue.

That threat was created by "stupidity and pro-Communist sympathies in the State Department," Taft asserted. He addressed a Republican rally that overflowed the 1,350 capacity of the Neil House hotel ballroom.

The senator described Stevenson as "hand in glove" with President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson on foreign policy. "At the end of the war, we stood at the height of power," Taft said. "Truman was the most wonderful man. But our people failed to understand the nature of communism. Today we face the greatest threat ever—far greater than Hitler." He said "Stevenson would continue that threat."

But Taft said the Republican presidential nominee, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, would clean out the top level in the State Department, including Acheson.

Taft said he would dwell more fully on foreign policy tonight in an address at a meeting of the Ohio Federation of Republican Women's Organizations in the Neil House.

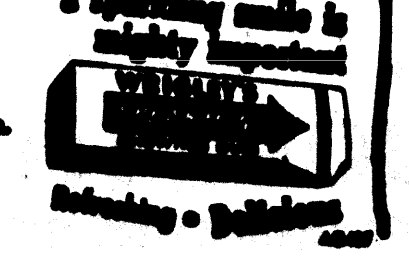

He will speak barely five blocks from Memorial Hall where Stevenson is scheduled to talk about the same time on social security to a bid for the 28 electoral votes of Ohio, Taft's home state.

Taft is back in Ohio during the election to campaign for the election of Stevenson.

The senator criticized Stevenson's foreign policy, saying it was "hand in glove" with President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

St. Matthew's, L. T. I. Battle To 0-0 Tie In Scrap For Monroe 'B' Title

By Ted Heckathorn

St. Matthew's High School and Louisiana Training Institute battled to a 0-0 tie in the third annual intra-city game for the "City Class B" football championship, here yesterday afternoon.

The game was evenly fought throughout, with neither eleven breaking loose for any substantial gain. Yeoman line play featured the scrap, which saw line man George Fruge, end Albert Thibaux, quarterback Joe Insana, and fullback "Red" Stratton constant thorns in the Pelican offense. Right end Gerard Plaisance and fullback Johnny Hernandez were outstanding on defense for the Pels, though linemen from both eleven were constantly filtering through and spilling runners dead in their tracks for sizable losses. Mid-field action all through the first three quarters with no threats on either side was the theme with strong defenses taking all the limelight. The Pels started to roll once in the second quarter when fullback Fernandez ripped off gain after gain around ends and through the middle to rack up two first downs, but a fumble recovered by the Fighting Irish ended any TD aspirations.

The final stanza was largely dominated by St. Matthew's drives close to paydirt, but the L. T. I.

boys rose to the occasion and twice thwarted Irish touchdowns with great stands on the four-yard line. The Irish, sparked by the plunges of backs Johnny Accardo and Stratton moved down to the four just as the third period ended, but with first down and four to go for a TD, the drive stalled and L. T. I. took over on downs. The Pels immediately moved the ball out to the 22, where they lost it on a fumble. The Irish moved in exchange, and an intercepted Pel aerial gave the ball again to St. Matthew's. Completed screen passes again brought the Irish to the Pel four, but fullback Stratton had to be removed with a leg injury, and with him went the Irish scoring threat, for then they reverted to passes with Fernandez intercepting one behind the goal line and running it out to safety.

The last few minutes found the air full of passes with St. Matthew's completing several but dropping several more in the clear for certain touchdowns. The game ended with the Pels in possession doing their share of heaving aerials without success.

Sam Rubin Jr., of the R. and A. Jewelry Company had no winner to whom to present the city championship trophy, so a coin was flipped and Coach Kermit Youngblood of L. T. I. won the toss over Coach Jay Broussard the first six months, after which it will go to St. Matthews for the balance of the year.

Names 7 Cheerleaders

FERRIDAY, La., Oct. 3 (Special) — The Ferriday High School pep squad has been organized, according to Hugh A. Bateman, principal. Cheerleaders this year are: Irene Walsworth, Margaret Green, Billie Long, Ann Sturdivant, Elizabeth Burford, Jean Knight, and Shirley Lou Chapman.

TIGERS SEEKING TO END TORNADO STRING OF WINS

Celebrating homecoming, the Neville High School Tigers collide with the Haynesville Golden Tornado here tonight at Neville Stadium, and, if tradition continues to prevail, it will be a sad celebration for the Bengals who have never beaten a Haynesville eleven.

The Tornado-Tiger off-and-on rivalry began in 1932, and Haynesville has won nine times. The biggest Tornado margin was 58-5 in 1932, and the closest was 12-6 in 1932. Four times, including last year, Haynesville won by 7-0 scores.

Neville has a 2-3 record for the season, both defeats being at the hands of "AA" caliber teams. The Tigers looked impressive in beating Homer and Rayville in their last two outings and have hopes of having what it takes to break the Haynesville jinx at last.

Haynesville, however, is favored to measure Neville again, and one of the big reasons is Don Caraway, 205-pound fullback, who has been the Tornado's biggest offensive threat this season.

The fact that Haynesville held Ruston's defending state "A" champions to a 7-0 victory credits the Tornado with a good defense and ample test for Neville's offense of Tommy Leos, Jerry McWilliams, Jimmy Dennis, and Alton McCreedy.

The homecoming program, opening with a parade through the downtown area at 3 o'clock this afternoon, will be highlighted by the crowning of Miss Linda Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Thompson, as homecoming queen during halftime ceremonies. Maid-of-honor Barbara Rogers and Maids "Sister" Barringer, Pat Ruple, and Neil Rogers complete the queen's court.

Coach Ruple's Neville lineup is expected to have Ken Abington and Bill Stevens at ends; Bobby Shatto and Fred Seiler at tackles; Leland Sims and Rodney Statham or Fred Allen at guards; Jay Adams at center; and McCreedy, quarterback; Leos and Dennis, halfbacks; and McWilliams, fullback.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP) — Four innings of no-hit, no-run relief pitching by righthander Jack Crimian Thursday night carried the Rochester Red Wings to a 10-5 victory over the sloppy fielding Kansas City Blues in the fifth game of their Little World Series. Kansas City still leads in games, 3-2.

Ouachita Invades Bastrop Tonight For Opening Of Class AA Campaign

The inaugural Class AA football game between teams of northeast Louisiana is scheduled for tonight when the Ouachita Parish High School Lions invade Bastrop for an 8 o'clock meeting with the Bastrop High School Rams.

Ouachita has been northeast Louisiana's only representative in double-A ranks since the conference first went into action in 1937.

Coach Jim Hodgins' Lions will be seeking to regain prestige lost in their defeat at the hands of the Ruston Bearcats two weeks ago. The Lions were idle last week as they pointed for Bastrop and the beginning of their competition against "AA" outfits for the rest of the campaign.

Bastrop also is seeking to rebound. Like their Lions, they were polished off by an "A" outfit last week, losing to Jonesboro - Hodges, 14-7, after the Rams had led for three quarters 7-0.

The lineups:

Fleming LT P. Henderson

Berry LG Rogers

Matkins C McGuire

SPORTS TUMBLE TO CHICKSAWS

Memphis Mauls Shreveport, 9-1, In Dixie Series Game

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 3 (AP) — Righthander Tom Hurd pitched the Memphis Chickasaws within one game of a Dixie Series title here Thursday night, letting the Shreveport Sports down on five hits for a 9-1 victory.

The slight curve baller, fifth in line among Chick starters, allowed two hits in the first inning and two in the fourth, when Shreveport scored its lone run on singles by Harry Elliott and Grant Dunlap and a bobble by Shortstop Sammy Meeks.

Thereafter he was almost unhit-table, retiring 11 straight batters from the fifth to the ninth, when Dunlap slapped another single.

Fred Baczewski, winner of the Dixie opener, was clubbed for eight hits and five runs in the eight innings he worked. Bill Tramel came in to absorb a four-run hiding in the ninth, topped by Al Kozar's grand slam homer.

In all, Memphis garnered a dozen hits, including five extra-basers. Meeks also rapped a homer, while Catcher Don Griffin had two doubles and a single.

The clubs move back to Memphis Friday night.

RUSSIAN WHEAT EXCHANGE

TEL AVIV (AP) — The Israel government is not able to import Russian wheat in exchange for citrus fruit, according to a foreign office spokesman here.

It was stated that the wheat prices asked by the Soviet authorities "was considerably higher than that which Israel pays under the International Wheat Agreement or on the free world market."

MARTIN'S HEAVY BAT WORK GIVES N. Y. PUNCH

Roe Vs. Lopet As Series Shifts To New York Today

By JACK HANCOCK

BROOKLYN, Oct. 3 (AP)—One round Billy Martin and Vic Raschi restored the pride of the Yankees Thursday as Brooklyn pitching buckled under a five-run sixth inning to let the New York Yankees square the 1952 World Series with a 7-1 victory in the second game.

Martin, the fiery second baseman who retired as unbeaten middleweight champion of the American League after two spring ball park brawls, singled pitcher Carl Erskine and reliever Billy Loes with a tie-breaking single and a three-run homer to drive home four big runs.

Out on the mound, the 33-year-old Raschi coolly and carefully strong-armed his way to a three-hit triumph, his fourth in series competition dating back to 1947.

Only in the third inning, when the Brooks bunched singles by Pee Wee Rees, Duke Snider and Roy Campanella, for their lone run did the veteran righthander allow a hit. He zoomed down the stretch with six no-hit innings.

From the third to the seventh, Big Vic blazed that fast ball and slider past the bewildered Dodgers, retiring 12 men in a row.

Nine Dodgers were strikeout victims of Raschi's powerful pitching, including Snider, yesterday's hero, three times.

Many of the 33,782 fans left the park early for the comfort of their homes or nearby watering spots while Raschi mastered their heroes.

For five innings it was a tense ball game, as tight as Wednesday's duel between Joe Black and Allie Reynolds. Suddenly the Yankees plodded in the sixth to turn their 2-1 lead into a lopsided 7-1 rout.

Erskine, wobbling because of poor control, got his lumps in the sixth. This time there was no brilliant Dodger defense to save him.

First baseman Gil Hodges floundered on two key plays that paved the way for Martin's home run pokes into the lower left field seats.

But before Hodges messed up matters, Erskine was in the show, leaving a no-out, bases-loaded situation for the 22-year-old Loes.

Mickey Mantle's bunt single, his second of three hits for a .356 series average, started Erskine on the way out in the big inning. Gene Woodling's shotgun single to right center kept it going. When Yogi Berra walked on a 3-2 pitch to fill 'em up, Erskine was derailed for Loes.

Loes made Joe Collins rap a double play bounce to Jackie Robinson who tagged Berra in the baseline. But Hodges let Robinson's easy throw squirm out of his glove for a costly error, Mantle scoring.

Gil McDougald dunked a bunt toward first that Hodges picked up and held, without making a play, as Woodling crossed the plate.

Up stepped Martin, playing his first series as a regular since Gerry Coleman marched off to war. After looking at a ball, he picked Loes' second pitch into the seats about 300 feet away to break the game wide open with three more big runs.

Winnfield '11' INVADING MANY

Tigers Make Lineup Changes After Loss To Winnsboro

WINNFIELD, La., Oct. 2 (Special)—Following their 27-0 defeat by the Winnsboro Wildcats last week, Coach Rudolph "Red" Smith's Winnfield Tigers have undergone a stiff defensive drill in preparation for their encounter with the Many eleven at Many Friday night.

As a result, three substitutes who have performed effectively in this role will find themselves in the starting defensive lineup, the monitor said. These include Jimmy Ayon, a tackle who will handle the right guard slot defensively; Russell Sullivan, a guard who will serve as a line backer and Jimmy Richardson, a guard who is slated to fill the other spot behind the defensive line.

While defense was the chief concern of the coaches this week, "we're also trying to get our offense clicking a little better for the Many game," Smith said. The Tigers in four games this season have performed well on offense until they hit touchdown territory but seldom have been able to generate a scoring punch.

Win - last records of the Winnfield and Many clubs are similar with one victory and three losses for each team. Winnfield has beaten LaSalle and dropped games to Natchitoches, Tallulah and Winnsboro, while Many has whipped LaSalle and lost to Jones, Pineville and Logansport.

Squirrel Hunters Take To Woods As Officials Argue Over Season

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 3 (AP)—Squirrel hunters were up a tree Thursday over whether they have a legal hunting season opening in Louisiana Friday.

An opinion released by the attorney general's office said the legal season doesn't begin until Oct. 20.

But an official of the state Department of Wildlife and Fisheries in New Orleans, notified of the opinion, said he didn't know immediately what would be done about it.

In the face of the legal opinion, a spokesman for Louisiana hunters asked, "what about hunters already in the woods preparing for Friday's hunt?"

The squirrel season was ready to open Friday according to dates set by the Wildlife Department.

Worried by an outbreak of fires in cracking-dry hardwood forests, the Louisiana Forestry Association had urged postponement of the season.

Gov. Robert Kennon, through his executive counsel, Wilburn Lunn, suggested to the Wildlife Department a delay would be wise.

But Wildlife Commissioner Ernest Clements had indicated this week Lunn said, that it would be practically a physical impossibility at this late date to call off the squirrel season beginning Friday.

Lunn said he had been informed by Carroll Buck, second assistant attorney general, that the legal open season for squirrels is Oct. 20-Jan. 10.

The Wildlife Department, notified of the opinion, is expected to postpone the season, Lunn added.

Buck, in an opinion mailed to state Rep. E. H. Lancaster of Madison Parish, said Act 343 of 1952 provides for the Oct. 20-Jan. 10 period for the squirrel hunting season, earliest of the game seasons this year. Buck wrote that it was his opinion "the commissioner has no authority to change in any way these dates."

The state Forestry Commission now has more than 25 woodlands fires to combat.

State forester James Mixon has warned that forests are the driest since 1924.

Mixon commented Thursday, "If we don't get a break in this extremely dry weather, the forest situation will become a critical emergency."

Louisiana Forestry Association members in Alexandria said former Gov. Earl Long had called Commissioner Clements this week suggesting a postponement because of the forest danger.

However, Commissioner Clements said at Oberlin Thursday night that, as far as he was concerned, the season opens Friday.

Clements said he has the power to curtail the season or close it, for that matter.

"My attorney and I have read the law and our interpretation is that I have the authority to open the season," Clements said. "Under Section 15 of the Laws of 1950, the law states that the commissioner, in general, has full authority and control over birds and animals, whether game or fur-bearing or not."

"I have used this as a guide in the past," Clements continued, "and I intend to use it here."

"When I ordered the season opened on Oct. 3, I had no idea what conditions would prevail now. Of course, I caution every hunter to use the greatest caution in the matter of fire prevention."

"Postponing the season would inconvenience people who have taken vacations now in order to hunt. Furthermore, I am afraid that a postponement would cause a great many to start the season prematurely."

"As far as I am concerned the season opens Friday."

TROJANS AND BULLDOGS BATTLE

Crowville Invades Tallulah For Game At 8 O'Clock

TALLULAH, La., Oct. 3 (Special)—The Tallulah High School Trojans, who romped over Oakdale, 32-6, last week, are expecting stronger opposition from the Crowville Bulldogs here Friday night, particularly since Coach Devon Payne's Men of Troy will be weakened by injuries.

Coach Payne announced Howard Brown, stellar Tallulah halfback, will not see action against Crowville because of sickness, and that Arlen Ray Gardner, hard charging fullback who plays tackle on defense, is a doubtful starter unless he responds to treatment for injuries suffered in practice earlier in the week. Halfback has been groomed to replace Gardner if necessary.

On the brighter side, however, "Dodo" Crothers, quarterback, who suffered a broken nose in the opener at Greenville, Miss., is expected to be available for some action against the Bulldogs.

Kickoff time Friday night is 8 o'clock.

The lineups:

Crowville	Pos.	Tallulah

Before the second game, the Yankees' Casey Stengel paid high tribute to his current foes.

"Why should those guys be scared of us," he said of the Dodgers. "They're a seasoned club. They've got a manager who's been around, in the majors and minors. They've got sharp coaches. They've played against some of the best players there are—like that fellow Musiallo (Musial). Why should we bother 'em?"

Each day the Brooklyn faithful introduce a new pre-game gimmick. Wednesday it was a giant floral wreath. Thursday it was a giant bat, about six feet in length, inscribed: "The Brooklyn Dodgers, National League champions."

Wounded servicemen are being given deluxe treatment. Each day the 52 association of New York provides 10 to 15 wounded GI's with choice box seats, box lunches and steak dinners afterwards.

Scouts reports to the Yankees were that the Dodgers' Carl Erskine should be tougher on the world champs. than was Joe Black. "What difference does it make," he remarked Stengel. "If a pitcher hasn't got his control what difference does it make how well he was scouted?"

Yankees' Coach Bill Dickey and Dodger Pitcher Frazier Itoe were seen in a serious conversation just before game-time. World Series stuff? Naw, hound dogs. Both are Arkansas natives.

"The locals came out of the Winter game in good shape and have given the fans hope that they will continue their usual fine play."

The Tigers' defensive and offensive blocking has been improving with each game and the playing of Dan Chase, Carl Higgenbotham, Paul Munson, Pete Hays, Hollis Wallace, Mervin Wampold, Don McGee, Joe Coronet and Eugene Mears doing a good job with key blocks and down field blocking to give Louis Preis, J. D. Stockstill, J. Coronet and E. Mears the protection they needed to score.

Physicians recommended the move after Fullback Harold (Bull) Davidson of Murphy, N. C., who complained Wednesday of illness, was found Wednesday night to have infantile paralysis. Physicians said his condition was acute.

World Series NOTES

BROOKLYN, Oct. 3 (AP)—Peppery little Phil Rizzuto made one of baseball's most sportsmanlike gestures Thursday when he took the blame for a collision with Duke Snider at second base that left three deep spike scratches on Phil's right thigh.

"Snider is a nice guy — he wouldn't do it on purpose," said the Yankees shortstop.

Snider was forced at second in the third inning, on Jackie Robinson's grounder. The tiny, veteran Yankee went down hard and play was suspended while he was treated.

"It looked like the ball was going to hit Duke," said Rizzuto. "I just stood there on second instead of getting out of his way as I should have done."

The spike wounds were about six inches long and there was blood on one of them.

Pie Traynor, the old Pittsburgh third baseman who is one of the all-time greats at that position, is a World Series spectator and not the least surprised at the sparkling fielding of Brooklyn's Billy Cox.

Traynor discovered Cox at Harrisburg, Pa., in 1941 and sent him to the Pirates, who let the infielder get away. "He's one of the greatest glovemans I ever saw," says Traynor.

Before the second game, the Yankees' Casey Stengel paid high tribute to his current foes.

"Why should those guys be scared of us," he said of the Dodgers. "They're a seasoned club. They've got a manager who's been around, in the majors and minors. They've got sharp coaches. North Carolina officials, acting upon recommendation of medical authorities called off the games "as a means of safeguard and precaution for protecting 'its opponents' players as well as its own."

Physicians recommended the move after Fullback Harold (Bull) Davidson of Murphy, N. C., who complained Wednesday of illness, was found Wednesday night to have infantile paralysis. Physicians said his condition was acute.

Three others of the university's 5,700 students have been hospitalized with the disease. The university identified them as Robert Nash Higgins, Tampa, Fla., John Robert Barden, Jr., Newark, N. J., and Richard Lee Bestian, Raleigh, N. C.

NORTHEAST GETS ROUGH WORKOUT

Indians In 'High Spirits' For Livingston Contest

One of the favorite war cries of Northeast Louisiana State College is "If you're gonna be an Indian then be a wild Indian" and anyone watching the practice session last night of the Northeast State Indians understands fully the meaning of that slogan.

The Northeast gridders underwent their most spirited and probably their hardest scrimmage last night right up to the time that "ole so!" set in the west.

The thing that was most outstanding about the workout was the exceptionally high spirits that the local pigskinners displayed. Throughout the entire drill, every man was on his toes and giving forth with everything he had.

Showing excellent form were freshmen defensive ends Bill Brodeur and Bob Windle. Both were quick at analyzing offensive moves and quick to get in to break up the plays.

Northeast grid mentor James L. Malone was impressed with the work of these and several other fresh aspirants and for that reason declined to give any definite regarding the starting lineups for the game Saturday night against Alabama State of Livingston.

Malone did, however, name his co-captains for the coming tilt. They are Maurice "Red" Nix, piledriver fullback for offense, and fleetfooted Bill Lee, halfback for the defense. Both gridders have been showing up top style in past games and in practice.

Both of them are from Oak Grove. Malone said last night, "It really makes a coach feel good to see his team in such high spirits. When a squad is feeling as perky as these boys are, they're really hard to keep up with on the football field."

Unbeaten Saxton Faces Jones' Threat Tonight

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—Undeclared Johnny Saxton goes after his 32nd straight victory Friday night when he takes on the little known but powerful Ralph (Tiger) Jones in a bout that will be nationally telecast and broadcast from St. Nicholas Arena.

Saxton, a fast-punching 22-year-old from Brooklyn, is a 3 to 1 choice to defeat his 22-year-old rival from Yonkers, N. Y., in the 9 p.m. (C.S.T.) ten-round welterweight clash.

KNIGHT 'INACTIVE'

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—Pat Knight, New York football Giant fullback and linebacker who suffered a fractured left arm in last Sunday's game with the Dallas Texans, was placed on the league inactive list Thursday.

Texas Should Call On Its Rangers To Check Great Football Invasion

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—Proud Texans like to tell the story of how a riot broke out in one of the pandie towns and a ranger was dispatched to quell it.

"You don't mean," an outsider inquired incredulously, "you just sent one man to put down the uprising?"

"Why, sure," replied the Texan. "There was just one riot, wasn't there?"

It'll take more than one Texan to put down all the football riots in the Lone Star state this week, with Notre Dame at Texas, Georgia Tech at S. M. U., Kentucky at Texas A. and M., Washington State at Baylor and L. S. U. at Rice.

We bloodied our nose a bit last week (they should have called the Michigan game after the first quarter). But we still have a season's record of 67 hits against 21 misses for .762.

Dr. Jackson Will Address Baptists
 Dr. D. N. Jackson, president of the Conway Baptist College, Conway, Ark., will speak to the members of the Eastside Missionary Baptist Church located at Selman Field at 7:30 Saturday night.
 A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and hear this outstanding speaker. Dr. Jackson is widely known as a Baptist leader and the church regrets that they can have him for but one meeting. His week-end tour starts here Saturday night, at the McCreight Street Baptist Church. Sunday morning, and at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Laran, Louisiana, Sunday night.

TOY GUN AROUSES DOG
 BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP)—An 8-year-old boy playfully pointed his toy gun at the neighbor's cocker spaniel. The dog charged him with teeth flashing. The youngster ended up being treated in the hospital for an abdominal dogbite wound.

LOUISIANA SETS DRAFT RECORD
 Delivers 644 Selective Service Registrants To Armed Forces
 The delivery of 644 Louisiana Selective Service registrants to armed forces induction stations at New Orleans and Shreveport to fill the October draft call is now starting.
 Tuesday the last of the men required to fill the September requirement for 500 inductees were delivered to mark the twenty-fifth consecutive month that the Louisiana Selective Service System has fulfilled armed forces requirements for inductees 100 per cent.
 Few other states can equal this record, according to Acting Director L. Col. Leo W. Davis.
 Meanwhile Louisiana's 80 draft boards are selecting the registrants who will be mailed notices to report for induction during the month of November to fill a call for 657 selectees; second largest call made upon the state since May, 1951.
 No 19-year-old registrants will be called up to fill the October and November quotas. All will be at least 20 years of age.
 A large percentage of the men currently being delivered to the Army by the Louisiana Selective Service System are men formerly classified as IV-F.
 According to Colonel Davis the recovery rate among the several thousand Louisiana IV-F registrants being re-examined by the armed forces is now averaging approximately 20 per cent.
 The re-examination of men formerly rejected by the armed forces in their pre-induction examinations is expected to continue for another three months.
 The armed forces initiated the program of re-examining rejects last January as a result of passage of the Universal Military Training and Service act of 1951 which reduced acceptance standards to those used at the height of World War II.

Jacoby On Bridge

It's Dangerous To Change Game Play

By OSWALD JACOBY

A pair of nines led to South's downfall in the hand shown today. It was a bridge hand, not a game of poker, so you wouldn't expect a pair of nines to mean much. To tell the truth, South also had to play the hand badly.

The bidding was very fine, and the slam contract was a very good the ace of hearts and to discard his remaining heart on a club later on.

In fact, South played the whole hand before he played to the first trick. It wasn't a bad plan, either, and he should have stuck to it.

He took the ace of hearts, cashed the ace of diamonds, ruffed a diamond in dummy, got back to his hand with the ace of clubs, ruffed another diamond in dummy, and then discarded his remaining heart on dummy's king of clubs. So far so good.

His original intention was to ruff himself in with a heart, ruff his last diamond in dummy with the jack of spades, and then get back with either a heart or a club ruff to lay down the ace of spades and concede a trick to the king of spades. This would have worked well enough, and South would have made his slam in comfort and safety.

The only trouble was that East played the nine of clubs when dummy cashed the king of clubs. This was only the second time that a club had been led, and South thought that East had either the jack alone left in his hand, or perhaps no more clubs at all.

In either case it seemed safe to lead the queen of clubs from dummy. If East ruffed, South could over-ruff (he thought), and then perhaps he would not lose a spade trick. If East followed suit, South planned to discard the queen of diamonds and take a trump finesse.

Alas for poor South, East's nine of clubs had been a desperate attempt to throw South off the right track; and it worked. When dummy led the queen of clubs, West ruffed.

Only one trump was left in dummy, and one trump finesse was not enough to pick up the king of spades—even if South could get to dummy, which he couldn't!

Maybe the moral is that you shouldn't change a sound plan just because of a false card that couldn't cost the opponent anything.

South saw no reason to take the finesse. Instead he planned to take

Hearts K-Q-5, Diamonds Q-J-9-3,
Clubs K-10-4. What do you do?

A—Bid two no-trump. This is what you would bid if the heart bid had not been made, and with two stoppers in hearts you can still afford to make the same bid. You have too many diamonds and too few hearts to consider a penalty double of one heart.

TODAY'S QUESTION
The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades A-J-6, Hearts K-Q-5, Diamonds Q-J-9-3, Clubs K-J-4. What do you do?

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

1. HAS THE YOUNGER GENERATION SURPASSED THE OLDER IN TECHNIQUES OF COURTSHIP?

2. ARE CITY PEOPLE AS SOCIABLE AS SMALL TOWN AND COUNTRY PEOPLE? YOUR OPINION—

3. DO PERSONS KNOW CAUSES AND CURES OF THEIR INFERIORITY FEELINGS? YES NO

4. CONQUER YOUR FEARS

By Albert Edward Wiggam, D. Sc.
Answer to Question No. 1

1. Not according to a study of young married women, their mothers and maternal grandmothers by sociologist Marvin Koller. In each generation courtship lasted an average of 18 months. A majority seriously regarded only one man as a future husband; no tendency in any generation either to rush into or postpone marriage. Engagements, distinguished from courtship, decreased from 11 to 6 months, and more parents today disapprove of the boys' their daughters date—both bad tendencies, marriage counselors find.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Probably not. Psychologist

E. O. Lewis says the average city dweller lives in a "dormitory"—an apartment where he knows scarcely anyone. His—or her—friends are miles away and can only be visited occasionally. He says this gives them a snobbish attitude toward neighbors. He calls the average city "dormitory" "an amorphous agglomeration of unsociables." In a small town you can gossip, and gossip makes people sociable—except the gossipers.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. No. One psychologist shows that you feel inferior solely because you compare one or two traits in other people with your entire personality. You make a retail judgment of others (usually only a few) against a wholesale judgment of yourself. The cure is to reverse this. Our booklet, "The Conquest of Fear" shows how to make 120 judgments of yourself. Sent at cost, 15c (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

New 24 page booklet prepared by Dr. Wiggam from the research of Dr. David Mitchell, Consulting Psychologist. Shows you how to analyze and end your fears. Send 15c in coin and a stamped (3c) self-addressed return envelope. This offer is made without profit and only as a service to readers. If you wish a copy address Dr. A. E. Wiggam, care of this newspaper. Just ask for The Conquest of Fear.
